Pick-up Information and Privacy Policy

Since we do not have access to your student's records, we request from you, your student's cell phone or personal email address. We send notices to their campus mailbox, but a phone message or an email might reach them sooner to ensure that they know about your surprise on time! However, we cannot guarantee that the gift items will be picked up on time if we cannot reach your student. We will make every effort to have your gift items picked up in a timely manner, however, it may not always happen, depending on the student's schedule.

NOTE: All sales are non-refundable, even if your student picks it up after the requested pick-up date.
